Hostesses At Tea

For teachers and other visitors there was spring flowers and a variety of cookies, chips and dips and fruit punch at the "Foreign Language Week" tea held Thursday afternoon, April 22 at the Appomattox County High School cafeteria. Hostesses (above) Are members of the three sponsoring clubs; Spanish, French and Latin. On nearby tables were displays from each club of currency, musical instruments, maps and cultural objects from countries where the three languages are spoken. Club advisors are Spanish James Hall; French, Mrs. Edwina Covington; and Latin, Miss Claudine O'Brien. Helping to serve (from left); Norma Gallier, Penny Martin, Kitty Simpson, Kathy Mitchell, Janet Hix, Joanne Elder, Nadine Robinson, Julia Hesson, Patricia Hudson and Donna Smith. The tea followed the highly successful evening show by foreign language students held Tuesday evening, April 20 at the high school auditorium.

Final Fitting For Costume

Maxine Ramer, of College Park, Md. (at left) makes final adjustment to gown of Mrs. Marian Godsey, one of the costumed ladies at the Appomattox Court House National Historical Park. She and Mrs. Charles Martin show visitors the many attractions of the Old Country Store. With Mrs. Ramer is her daughter, Jimaxi Ostrowiski. Both are talented dress designers. Mrs. Ramer has done careful research into gowns of the 1860's and Mrs. Godsey and Mrs. Martin at the store and Mrs. Helen (Bill) Talbert as hostess at the McLean House will have beautiful costumes for summer visitors. The hoops, the lace, hooks and eyes, even the frilly starched white caps covering period hair styles and long curls, are documented in Godsey's prints and other vintage pictures. Only concession to modern times – these originals were stitched by Mrs. Rammer at her machine instead of by hand, and the fabrics, though copies of older materials, are today's easy-care "wash and wear." By the way, Mrs. Ramer and Mrs. Ostrowski say that Caldwell's Motor Court provided good space and facilities for last-minute stitching during their stay here.

'Cookie' George Needs Help

Most seven year olds in the United States know something about school work, riding a tricycle, playing ball, etc., but there's a seven year old boy from Appomattox who knows a lot about hospitals and operations.

He is "Cookie" George Morgan, seven years old, who is a patient at the University of Virginia hospital. Cookie George, son of Helen and George Morgan, Rt. 2, Appomattox, has had 13 operations in his young life. His kidneys were so diseased that both were removed and now he lives because of a "kidney machine" which cleanses his blood of impurities twice a week.

Relatives and friends are attempting to raise funds so that an additional kidney machine can be purchased by the U. Va. hospital to be used by the little boy and other patients like him. Interested persons are invited to contribute to the "Cookie" George Fund, in care of Mrs. Helen Morgan, Rt. 2, Box 148, Appomattox, Va.
